International BLC Sponsorships (801-BLC)

The BLC (Barner Learning Center) International Student Sponsorship Program is an opportunity for Filipino children who otherwise might not be able to afford a quality Christian education to obtain schooling at no cost to their families through the "adoption" of their financial schooling obligations by international supporters. For support of those at ages 2 through 15, the fee is $25 (P1250) per month.

Each Sponsorship covers the following: tuition, enrollment, books, registration, dental checkup, insurance, medical checkup, ID card, instructional materials, PTA & library & campus fees, school publications, graduation fee & gown, field trip transportation costs, boy/girl scout membership & uniforms, gym fee, and basic school supplies (notebooks, pencils, etc.).

PJ, ASLEEP ON A BENCH IN THE KOREAN AIRPORT DURING ONE OF OUR TWO 6-HOUR LAYOVERS BETWEEN FLIGHTS

ELVIE, PJ AND ABBY LEARN PUPPETEERING FROM PHIL IN NEW YORK, AFTER 20 PUPPETS WERE DONATED FROM A CHURCH IN S.C. WE ALSO SPEAK TO A 3RD GRADE CLASS IN NY.

IN THE AIR, ON THE AIR
“Daddy, are we there yet?”

Our 31 hour flight from the Philippines began right after I preached at church on Sunday. It brought us through Manila & Korea before landing us in NY.

From Davao to Manila, for an hour and a half, PJ was seated separate from the rest of us, and befriended a Davao banker who wants to visit BLC sometime in the near future, after we return in August. He mentioned to us that the woman is a Christian, which he was quick to find out. Yay, PJ!!!

At the Korean airport I met an American military man, who was very interesting to talk with. He also had with him a bird in a cage, mentioning that wherever he travels around the world, his bird is his constant companion. I of course mentioned that we are missionaries, and we not only keep each other company as we travel, but that Jesus is with us as well.

Our furlough in the USA is only 7 weeks long, visiting and speaking in churches, schools and civic clubs in the four-state region of New York, New Jersey, Vermont and Pennsylvania.

After picking up a rental car in New York City, we drove a few hours to a friend’s home.

Here was to be our first speaking engagement, that evening, at an informal picnic dinner with buddies we hadn’t seen since last year, plus a few new acquaintances. While there, five individuals mentioned their interest in becoming either short-term or career missionaries to Davao: a teenager, a college student, a middle-aged single man and a retired couple.

The next day (Tuesday) I visited the Port Chester, NY Kiwanis Club and they not only paid for my scrumptious dinner, but also committed to sending 500 toothbrushes for our BLC kids. They’ll pop by the offices of dentists and churches to solicit toothbrushes for this cause. They’ll even mail the brushes themselves! PTL!!!

After turning in the rental car near my parents’ place in Albany, Dad and Mom lent us their station wagon. The Winnebago that was donated to us will be used later in this furlough. Since it was Wednesday, we visited the prayer meeting of my home church and touched base with many of our “prayer warriors” there. I shared the story of Ricci Marie’s miraculous healing from lupus.

After visiting friends in Buffalo, we drove to the church where my brother Phil is pastor, in Andover, NY. Our brother Tim had also driven 12 hours from Ohio to be with us for a few days. After I spoke at church on Sunday, two single men told us their desire to become short-term missionaries to Davao! One of these men, Jeff, is a radio broadcaster, and invited us to speak at the local (Alfred College) radio station.

The radio program on WETD was an hour-long live broadcast, in which I explained the sponsorship program and how the school began. After my interview, PJ and Abby joined me in a short missionary skit. At the very end of our radio time, Elvie and the kids sang a trio of the Philippine National anthem, over the air.

Later that afternoon back at the parsonage, Jeff was mowing the lawn at church. His mom came by and was talking to Elvie. Before half an hour expired, Jeff’s mom agreed to sponsor a child at BLC! Since she has no daughters, she chose a female BLC student, and wrote a $25 check right there in her car, for the first month! I then emailed my BLC secretary to mail the info and pic to her.
