BCA Culture Day, 2024

"I am a Filipino!"

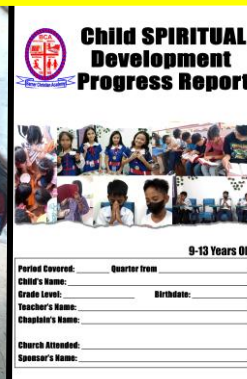

Every year, Filipino schools train the students to dress-up in their tribal costumes, so they can remember their rich heritage.

Barner Christian Academy teachers lead in researching the songs, stories & dances, as well as the native clothes, of their ancestors.

In the celebration, BCA's 2 chaplains paralleled the rich heritage we have as Christians, being dressed in the spiritual armor of the helmet of salvation, the shoes of Good news, the breastplate of righteousness, the sword of the Bible, the belt of truth & covered with prayer.

OTHER NEWS: Barners' USA speaking tour: 11/3: Schenectady, NY; 11/10: Chicago, IL; 11/17: Jefferson City, MO; 11/24: Bloomington, IN // While driving across the USA these 15 months, Elvie dresses in Filipina clothes. Also, we ship back to Davao boxes of toys, books & tools. The tools are used in BCA's shop class. BCA Kids get Spiritual report cards & also compete in basketball against other schools.

BCA'S CLASSROOMS:

Students at Barner Christian Academy enjoy classrooms which are clean enough to sit on the floor & also to eat in.

They also perform before their schoolmates in special celebrations on stage in the gym.
